STEWARDSHIP OF OUR RESOURCES

The Bible tells us that a gift in administration is a gift from the Holy Spirit and it is within that context that the financial and administration work that is done for the Church is done in His name to promote His Kingdom throughout the world.

Without someone to look after this work in the Church, Christ's work would not be done. It is a great privilege to be involved in this aspect of Church life, but it carries with it certain responsibilities.

Managing trustees at local Church, Circuit and District levels need to be aware of these responsibilities.

Churches can, by closely following the guidance and instructions in this booklet, be confident that the high standards of stewardship that are expected will be met and maintained.

HOWEVER, THE STANDING ORDERS (AND THE ACTS) THEMSELVES ARE THE FINAL AUTHORITY.

THE ESSENTIAL TRUSTEE

(Some quotations from the Charity Commission guidance)

FOREWORD: Dame Suzi Leather (chair) and Andrew Hind (CE)

Charities have a remarkable history of driving social change.

Trustees have ultimate responsibility for running a charity, for its property, finances and employment of its staff or volunteers.

Trusteeship is immensely rewarding – opportunities for personal development – gain new knowledge and experience.

CHARITIES

For public/community benefit.

Must have constitution or rules (Charity's governing document) (CPD – Constitutional Practice and Discipline of the Methodist Church).

TRUSTEES

May be known as directors, board members, governors, committee members.

Responsible for general control and management of administration of a charity.

Must accept ultimate responsibility for directing affairs of a charity ensuring it is solvent, well-run and delivers charitable outcomes for benefit of public.

COMPLIANCE

Ensure compliance with charity law and regulations.

Prepare Trustees Annual Report.

Act with integrity and avoid personal conflicts of interest.

PRUDENCE

Special care when investing charity funds or borrowing.

DUTY OF CARE

Obtain professional advice on all matters where there may be material risk to the charity or where trustees may be in breach of their duties.

IF THINGS GO WRONG

Trustees may be personally liable for any debts or losses the charity faces. (Depends on circumstances and type of governing document.)

Personal liability is rare and trustees who follow this guidance will generally be protected.

TRAINING

Learn as much as you can about the charity – read Annual Reports.

COMPANIES

Take legal advice when contemplating forming a company.

AGE

Trustees in England and Wales must be over eighteen (in Scotland – sixteen).

INELIGIBILITY

If already disqualified or having convictions (for dishonesty or deception).

DELEGATION

Is permitted but the trustee body must always retain ultimate responsibility

- eg – carrying out a decision
- investment of assets, including land
- raising funds.

HOW TO MAKE DECISIONS

Decisions must be taken by trustees acting collectively and as a team. (Need not be unanimous.)

PAYMENT

Charity trustees cannot receive payment for being trustees but may do so exceptionally for providing services to the charity eg plumber.

PROHIBITED BENEFITS

Taking a lease of charity's property.

Borrowing money from the charity.

Making contracts to do business with the charity.

EMPLOYMENT

Generally, trustees cannot be employees but there are exceptions in Methodist governing documents ie Standing orders covering constitutions (SO 410, 510, 610).

FINANCES

Must ensure used appropriately, prudently, lawfully and in accordance with objects.

PRINCIPLES OF TRUSTEES

Charity's expenditure must be applied fairly.

Income used within a reasonable period.

Act reasonably and prudently in all matters.

Avoid conflicts of interest.

cc*TRUSTEES HAVE FULL RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE CHARITY AND MUST:

- + act together and in person and not delegate control of the charity to others;
- + act strictly in accordance with the charity's governing document;
- + act in the charity's interests only;
- + manage the charity's affairs prudently and take a long-term as well as a short-term view;
- + not derive any personal benefit or gain from the charity of which they are trustees;
- + take proper professional advice on matters in which they are not themselves competent.

cc*TRUSTEES WILL BE PUT AT RISK OF PERSONAL LIABILITY ONLY IF THEY:

- ✚ cause loss to the charity by acting:
 - unlawfully,
 - imprudently or
 - outside the terms of the charity's governing document(s);

- ✚ commit the charity to debts which amount to more than its assets;

Trustees may in some circumstances insure against such liability.

cc*TRUSTEES ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL THE OPERATION OF THE CHARITY, ESPECIALLY IN:

 managing the charity's finances;

 applying the charity's income for charitable purposes only;

 managing land or buildings;

 investing funds;

 employing people;

 appealing for funds;

 ensuring that all the charity's property is under the control of the trustees;

 collecting all money owed or due to the charity, including tax and rating reliefs.
